

Lexical Modeling of Yamabuki, (Japanese Kerria) in Classical Japanese Poetry

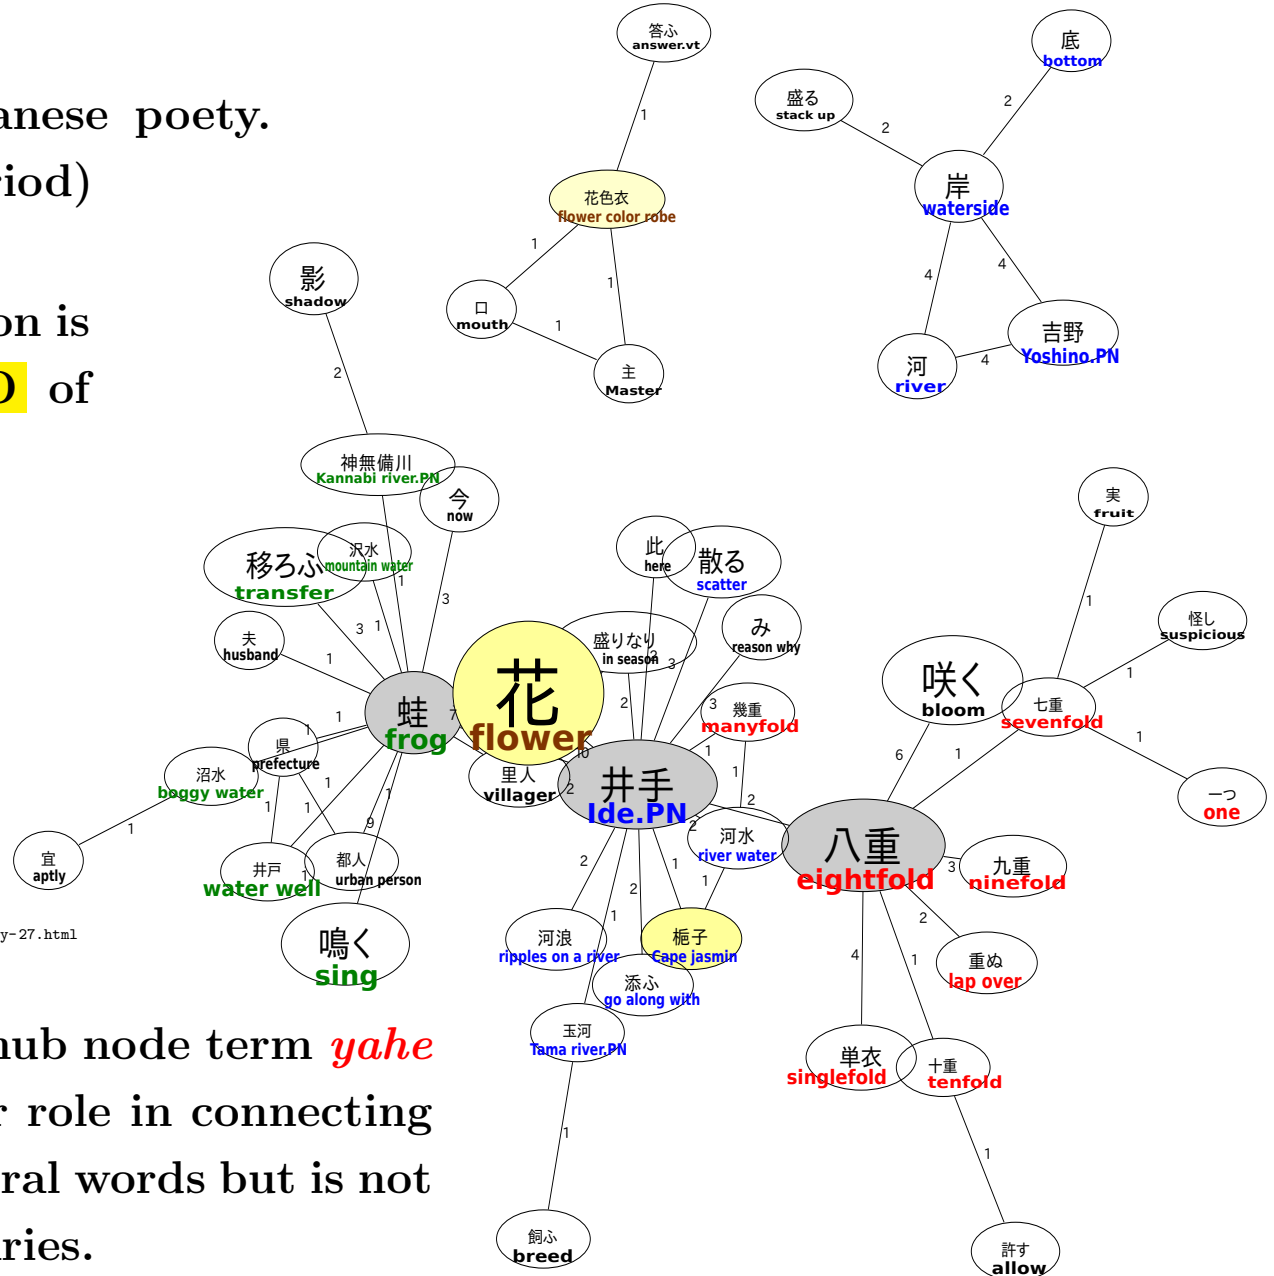

Hilofumi Yamamoto
Tokyo Institute of Technology

- Ide town in Kyoto is famous for its appearance in classical Japanese poetry. (ca. 10th century; the Heian period)
- The Ide -Frog -Kerria combination is known as the GOLDEN RATIO of Classical Japanese Poetry.

*1(<http://hukumusume.com/douwa/pc/minwa/03/03.htm>)

*2(<http://mkfarm.blog118.fc2.com/blog-entry-27.html>)

- In addition, we discovered the hub node term yahe (eightfold) which plays a major role in connecting a topic word with other peripheral words but is not recorded in any poetic dictionaries.